Disclosure:

Section 6113 of the Internal Revenue Code provides that certain tax-exempt organizations that are not eligible to receive tax deductible charitable contributions must disclose, in any fundraising solicitation (see below), in "an express statement (in a conspicuous and easily recognizable format)" that contributions to the organization are not deductible for federal income tax purposes as charitable contributions. This provision applies to organizations that are not eligible to receive deductible charitable contributions and are described in either section 501(c), section 501(d), or section 527. The service issued Notice 88-120 to provide safe harbors for meeting the requirements of section 6113. The BIA estimates the non-deductible portion of your 2020-2021 dues allocated to lobbying is estimated at 3.8 percent.
